

SUN BEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

Six more young people will graduate from the local high school tomorrow, some to go on to other institutions of learning and some to immediately seek what may prove to be their life work. They all will need a helping hand to climb the precarious rungs on the ladder to fame and it is up to each of us to assist them to constructively help themselves. We should be capable of doing this small thing that may have far reaching results.

Why is it that members of any organization often think their duty is done when they cast their vote for officers? Each one should study the by-laws of the group in which they are interested and practice them, not only for personal benefit but to aid their choice of leaders to make the club, lodge or sewing circle a bigger and better one by cooperating unselfishly and intelligently.

When a pet dog, who has harmed no one, is forced to drag itself to its master's doorstep with one leg severed, apparently the work of that contemptible breed known as the hit and run driver, we feel, the perhaps primitive urge to give the unspeakable genus the often sits behind the steering wheel of a car more than a taste of his own cruelty.

Accidents may occur and it is sometimes hard to miss a frisky dog when driving but there is no excuse we can think of for hitting an animal and leaving it to suffer needlessly.

A friendly dog, the type above mentioned, is just something to tease or torture but to the people who make them pets, a dog becomes part of the household as a faithful friend and guardian of its "family" becoming established in the hearts of those who have learned to know it. A hit and run driver generally treats his fellow man with as much consideration as he does an animal, at his mercy.

TELL YOUR STORY

Calamity chasers one predicted that radio's advent sounded the death knell of newspapers. Their dour prophecies have not been borne out, including their skeptical forecasts on the value of newspaper advertising. Here's Samuel W. Reyburn speaking, chairman of a prominent New York retailing organization, with a quarter-century of practical experience behind him. Retiring from service last week, he gave it as his belief that stores benefit more through newspaper and magazine advertising than from any other medium. In that statement he has only corroborated the findings of many other experienced advertisers. Their stories, in the newspaper, are tangible, they are visible, and they enjoy a longer life. The people who continuously pay to advertise know that advertising pays!

WHEN SHALL YOUTH VOTE?

With thousands of youths soon graduating from schools and colleges, many of them to try the mettle of their hands and brains in the workaday world for the first time, special interest centers on proposals in Congress and the State Legislature to lower the voting age from 21 years to 18 years.

There has been much ado about the measures to swell the ranks of the nation's voters with these several million new members, for pros and cons have no difficulty in rallying argument to their support.

Listen to the pros. They assert that most of today's young people have more political alertness than did the younger generation in the time of the the Founding Fathers. The pros declare, too, that this new bloc of youthful voters at one end of the age scale could helpfully counterbalance the large and increasing bloc of aged voters at the other end.

Hereupon the cons rally to the counter-attack. They point out that the period of educational training has been progressively lengthening. Today's students in their early twenties lack the adult maturity and experience of young people of the past who started out in life much earlier. At this statement, the pros challenge the opposition to prove that adulthood has a monopoly on wisdom.

Certainly whether youth gets into the polling booth before 21 is not as important as whether it exercises that privilege after 21. More may do no harm, but only wise and conscientious votes can do any good.

POLITICALLY SPEAKING

by JOHN W. DUNLAP
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, June 8 —(UP)—It's true that the Olsonites and the Republicans don't see eye to eye on many matters but a meeting of minds actually occurred on one angle of unemployment relief.

Gerald Kepple, Whittier Republican, was one of the leaders of the Assembly economy bloc who urged elimination of relief from the budget to be handled separately. When it became apparent that relief would be shunted long and perhaps postponed entirely until a recess session, Kepple came up with a proposition to have the SRA furnish workers to other public agencies for employment on public projects.

Kepple called for a $25,000,000 appropriation to handle the plan, which would be worked as a supplement to a relief appropriation. When the Assembly Ways and Means Committee gave it favorable approval, State Relief Administrator H. Dewey Anderson endorsed the plan wholeheartedly because "We heartily favor it as a step away from the cash dole."

Union labor frowns on the plan because relief clients would be paid at prevailing wages, with only the working hours limited to keep the total payment down to the amount now given in cash doles.

Kepple explained that relief clients should work, that the state would receive valuable public works projects and cities and counties could cooperate with allotments of money for materials.

Governor Olson's attempt to enlist the county boards of supervisors in his fight to block budget cuts backfired nicely. After the supervisors association called a special meeting in Sacramento and discussed Olson's appeal for "heroic and desperate action," a resolution was adopted to the effect that members of the Legislature and the administration were elected to study and decide the budget not the supervisors.

A further indication of Olson's objection to action of the Legislature was given in his weekly Sunday night talk. At the end of his prepared speech, after reciting the evils and unwisdom of budget cuts, the Governor paused, stumbled slightly and then blurted—"Ladies and gentlemen, we need a new Legislature."

From his speech, it was intimated rather plainly that the budget cuts would have removed funds for fighting forest fires, crippled the bovine tuberculosis program, deprive inmates in state institutions of adequate care and generally cripple state service. Opponents of the Governor were quick to point out that in most cases, departments were receiving more money than during the past biennium.

After receiving quite a bit of criticism for defeating the Donnelly bill to curb lobbyists, the Assembly did a right-about act and unanimously passed the Dilworth-Kepple Bill to make it a prison offense for a legislator to accept money or things of value for preparation, introduction or advice on legislation. Conviction would carry a 1 to 14 year prison term and disqualification from office.

Many of the legislators expressed themselves as feeling the liability rightfully should be on the lawmakers and not the lobbyists. Some attorneys felt it infringed on their rights, although the bill is concerned only with the legislative session. At any rate, there was no official protest.

Date of adjournment remains unknown, with the Assembly refusing to set a definite date until budget and relife are more in hand. Best guess still remains June 15 to 17 and the clocks are likely to stopped for several days past whatever day is chosen.—JWD.

The level of Lake Tahoe Monday was 6227.18 feet with five gates at the Truckee dam outlet open and 316 CSF of water leaving the lake. No precipitation was recorded and temperatures varied from 77 degrees on May 29 to a low of 28 on June 4.

The lake level dropped slightly in the past week.

A wiener roast and party was given Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tejas Edwards to all the Sunday school children who have earned a gold star for attendance during the past month. Mrs. Willis Hevel superintendent of the Sunday school was joint hostess. Among those present were Rae Pyle, Betty Renner, Peggy Stewart, Dick Hinkle, Robert Edwards, Elaine Edwards, and Mr. and Mrs. Hevel. After the delicious luncheon, games were enjoyed.

A children's day program will be given at the Tahoe Sunday school on June 11. The hour of meeting has been changed to 9:45.

SENSATIONAL NEW MOTOR OIL WON'T DRAIN OFF!—WON'T SCRAPE OFF!

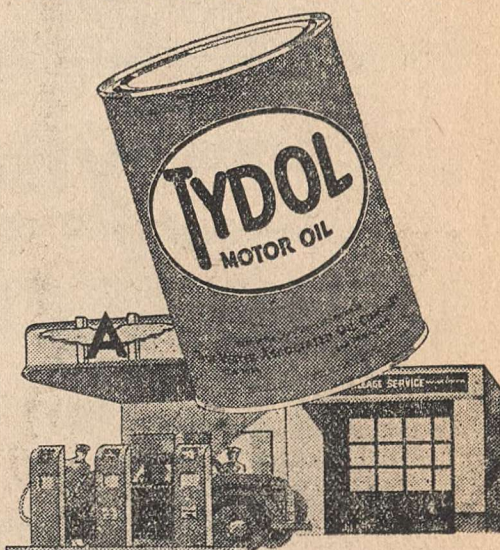

Don't be content with less power and performance as your car grows older. Much of the wear that causes power loss can be prevented by the new Tydol Motor Oil.

New chemical ingredients give Tydol these advantages:

1. Protects against "first-start" wear. Tydol adheres to metal surfaces—won't completely drain off and leave metal dry.
2. Prevents rust. Moisture formed in your motor overnight cannot lift Tydol's clinging film.
3. Prevents varnish. Special ingredients prevent sludge that forms sticky lacquer or varnish.
4. Protects against break-down of oil through increased film strength.

Keep your car running at top performance. Drain and fill with Tydol Motor Oil.

FACTS FAVOR FORD

1 The 1939 Ford V-8 is a beautiful, modern motor car. Its 85-horsepower engine gives you economical, well-balanced performance over the entire speed range — and the 60-horsepower engine is even more economical.

2 The structural strength of the Ford car — frame, bracing, axles, body — makes not only for safety, but durability and long life.

3 Ford hydraulic brakes are exceptionally large and strong in proportion to car weight.

4 The Ford car is stabilized for comfortable riding. Its springbase, the distance between front and rear suspension, is 123 inches. Seats are toward the center, perfectly balanced. The car does not bob or dip and can have very little sway.

These four points — power, strength, safety, comfort — are by far the most important essentials in any motor car. They form the basic value of your investment.

With this solid foundation to build on, the Ford V-8 has been made beautiful, spacious, easy to drive. It is richly upholstered and has all the modern features which add to the luxury and pleasure of motoring.

You can see these things when you take a trial drive, but do not forget that the main value is in the things you do not readily see — quality of materials, precision of manufacture, fundamental engineering.

WITH YOUR ASSEMBLYMAN, THURMAN

(by Assemblyman Allen G. Thurman)

At last the budget is on its way approved by both houses and by the time this paper goes to press it will undoubtedly have been signed by the governor. The total decrease in the budget as originally presented by the governor amounts to approximately $15,000,000. With the budget out of the way it is likely that the adjournment can now be set for either June 13th or 17th.

Joint rules of the senate and assembly require two weeks to finish up the business after the governor has signed the budget. This week the various revenue measures are being heard in the lower house. Undoubtedly the economy group which were responsible for cutting down the budget will oppose some of the revenue measures in an endeavor to keep down taxes.

TAHOE

Christian Science Services are held in the Community Hall every Sunday morning at 11:45, with a reader from Reno.

Graduation exercises will be held in the school auditorium on Friday, June 23 for the largest class of 8th graders in the history of the school when 15 pupils will graduate. A speaker will be secured and a program arranged.

Fire drill was held at the school Monday when a nearby brush fire broke out. The school fire alarm of six whistles sounded and the pupils filed out in good order.

The directors of the Tahoe City Public Utility District met at the home of the president, C. W. Vernon on Saturday night and appointed the following election board for the bond election to be held on June 12: Mrs. Norman Mayfield, Mrs. Willis Hevel, Mrs. E. C. Rogers, Mrs. A. M. Henry, and Miss Florence Vernon. Polls will be at the Community hall and will be open from 8 a. m. until 7 p. m.

Pictures and dramatization of the trip made by Tahoe school children to the fair were shown in the auditorium Thursday to a crowded house of parents and friends.

Mrs. Ed Wagner of Wagner's Auto Court at Lake Forest received word on Saturday of the death of her father, Henry Baldwin, 97, at Carlton, Minn. Mrs. Wagner returned from a extended visit with her father and other eastern relatives two years ago.

BILL TO ELIMINATE FISH AND GAME COMMISSION SENT OUT OF ASSEMBLY

With only two dissenting votes, the Assembly Constitutional Amendments committee last week reported favorably on ACA 78, Cronin, which is designed to put California fish and game affairs under the administration of a single man instead of the present commission setup. Proponents of the measure argued before the committee that they believed a single executive, paid a good salary, could conduct the business better than the non-salaried commission.

THURMAN BILL TO AID ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS VETOED BY GOVERNOR

SACRAMENTO, June 8 —(UP)—Governor Culbert Olson has vetoed the following Assembly bill:

AB 512, by Allen Thurman, R. Colfax, would have classified authorized emergency vehicles so they could be used by constables.

"If a constable should ever be permitted to use red lights and a siren on his vehicle," the Governor said, "it should only be while engaged in the actual pursuit of offenders of the criminal law. While on other business, and particularly while engaged only in private business or pleasure, a constable should not be accorded the use of such equipment."
